A NOTE ON THIS PRODUCTION

What you are hearing are the actual words of Shakespeare. That being said, the play has been tweaked a bit. We shortened it, a few words were changed, some genders flipped, and some faires added—but this is still the Bard at heart, and we hope you enjoy it!

The Lancaster Academy for the Performing Arts (founded and directed by Lorie LaSala) exists to provide music instruction and performance opportunities, with a goal of excellence, in order to honor God, and be a blessing to the community. SETTING THE STAGE

The play begins in Athens, where Duke Theseus and Hippolyta are preparing for their elaborate wedding. Tradesmen are working on a play to perform at the Duke's wedding. Meanwhile, a love triangle needs to be sorted out. And in the Fairie realm, there is dischord due to a squabble over a young servant.
